

COLLABORATION WITH THE SCHOOL

The importance of maintaining open communication with the adults who observe your child on a day-to-day basis, is key to understanding your child as a whole. With your permission, we can utilize this valuable information to better address the needs of your child or teen.